Dear Nawal Sahab,

In this letter, I would like to thank you for the wonderful time that we had at your resort, and all the memories that we have brought back with us, which we will always cherish.

As soon as I reached Safari Land, I was enchanted by the beauty of the place. I had been looking forward to it for the past two weeks and I knew that this was going to be a holiday to remember always. And I absolutely wasn't wrong! All thanks to you and your wonderful family who made our stay at Safari Land so special! Thank you so much for bearing up with us and we are sorry for all the trouble that we put you through.

The variety and the taste of the meals was exceptional. It was very different from the food we eat over here and so it was a good break for us. And how could I forget to mention the coffee in the mornings and evenings which was so energizing and refreshing. Of course, the desserts were scrumptious.

The trek that you took us on was very educative. It helped us to get even closer to nature. We are all really sorry for all the mess that we made in the rooms and it was really thoughtful of you to get it cleaned up for us so often.

We left Safari Land leaving our hearts behind. As Han Jing once said: 'Do not give yourself up to too much enthusiasm, it costs too much to come crumbling down from heaven.' I had given myself to the hills and each step away from the ~~hills~~ resort hurt. Your family and you made our stay at Safari Land worthwhile. I am looking forward to coming there with my family.

Yours a customer,
Priyal Rajgarhia.
