Dear Sir,

The moment I got off the bus I knew that this was going to be one of my best holidays ever and I sure wasn't wrong. In fact, it was a lot better than I actually expected it to be. The resort couldn't have been situated in a better place, the staggering beautiful greenery all around me was the perfect picture of nature and I was already dreading the day I had to say good-bye to all that. The resort felt like home and I couldn't have been more comfortable anywhere else.

Oh! How could I forget the hot, sumptuous meals which were placed before us exactly on time and above all you, Sir. You were absolutely (or at least looked!) thrilled to have us all there which made us all feel welcome and at home. The information you gave us during our trek was very interesting and I should specially thank you for taking the pains to answer all our questions after the trek. I guess the only disappointment during our trek was that we were restricted from entering the water. The food was delicious and the coffee and the desserts even better. I was very to-ched when I heard that you had allotted us your own house to stay in for the three days and also hate off to your family for being very understanding and tolerating all our noise. The rooms were very comfortable and cozy.

I'll end here still not being able to get enough of thanking you for all your efforts and for simply making our holiday very comfortable, interesting and most of all, fun. Alas! All good things have to come to an end and I was sad when it was time for me to collect my memories and move on.

Yours, a customer
Shreya
